RAILROAD NEWS

Trains Filled With People Leave Here for Jamestown Exposition.

All the trains that left the city yester-All the trains that left the city yester-day headed toward tidewater carried loads of people to the Jamestown Exposition, but, after all, as many Richmonders did not go down as it was at one time thought would make the trip for the opening day. The Chesapeake and Ohio sent out two excursion trains—one of eleven coaches and one of tweive—all of which were well crowded. The regular 9 o'clock train over this line was also packed to the doors, notwithstand ing the fact that it carried two extra cars. The Norfolk and Western carried down sixteen carloads of people.

The early morning traing of the Atlantic Const Line and the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac roads brought crowds of people to the city yesterday morning on their way to Jamestown. They left here by the two routes, but the most of them took the Norfolk and Western fast line.

The steamer Luray, of the Virginia Navigation Line, came up the James yesterday almost empty so far as passengers were concerned. Nobedy from down stream were in the humor to come to Richmond all the James River folk being headed the other way for one day at least.

All the passenger agents of the steam-boat and railway lines were out of the city yesterday. Everybody who could get away was at Jamestown looking after the passenger business of his respective line. The probability is that all the agents will have business a plenty at the Jamestown terminals for a few days to come. The transportation facilities there are said to be rather crude, and the agents will be detained several days straightening things out.

PROTEST ALREADY IS BEARING FRUIT

ing Cleaner.

The complaints made by Mayor Mc-Carthy, Aldermen Turpin and Reynolds and others, concerning the dirty condition of the City Hall, notwithstanding the large sum pald for janitor's service every year, have evoked protests from the janitors and some others in the Hall, but they have already borne fruit. Yesterday the janitors were engaged in scrubbing the tiled floors of the building and doing it thoroughly, and their own work when properly done is convincing that it has not been properly done heretofore. The work of some of the court janitors is commenced and that of the janitors of the Council Chamber has not been included in the general criticism. It is generally remarked that Janitor Thomas Bahen, of the Council Chamber, is a faithful and efficient worker, and results sustain this statement.

The effect of the agitation will be to improve conditions in the City Hall considerably, and even friends of the men criticised must admit after seeing what can be done that there was room for complaint. Every effort will be made to keep the Hall particularly clean this year, when thousands of visitors will be in the city.

No Jurisdiction. No Jurisdiction.

Solomon Neal, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly on a Southern train, appeared in the Police Court yesterday morning, and was fined $20. It was discovered that the trouble occurred in Charlotte county, and the Richmond court, therefore, had no authority in the matter. Justice Crutchfield fined the negro $20, and then let him go. The company will not prosecute any further.
